ROTARY CLUB OF DAYTON FOUNDATION AWARDS $10,000 IN SPECIAL GRANTS

EAST END COMMUNITY SERVICES & OMEGA CDC EACH AWARDED $5,000

DAYTON, OHIO – The Rotary Club of Dayton Foundation awarded $5,000 special grants Monday to two incredible organizations doing purposeful, innovative work in our city. Foundation President Cathy Ponitz presented the grants to East End Community Services and Omega CDC to support their efforts in the community.

"East End Community Services and Omega CDC have demonstrated unwavering commitment to empowering residents, fostering community development, and addressing critical needs around education, community health, and economic self-sufficiency in the Dayton area," Ponitz stated. "We celebrate and applaud East End and Omega for their exceptional strategies and look forward to seeing the positive impact they will continue to have on our communities."

The Foundation intentionally selected East End Community Services and Omega CDC to provide the widest geographic impact in our city as possible.

The Rotary Club of Dayton Foundation is comprised of nine trustees elected to rolling three-year terms. Current trustees and more information about our foundation, including past grant recipients, are available on our website.
